INDIAN THRILLER AT THE ORPHEUM

Winifred Greenwood and Ed Coxen are featured in "The Castle Ranch."

The bill at the Orpheum today is exceptionally fine and interesting. Two popular stars of the screen, Winifred Greenwood and Ed Coxen, supported by a superb cast, play the leading roles in an American drama, "The Castle Ranch." This is a story of Indians and men of the far west, and is full of thrilling scenes and sublimely pictured. A Reliance drama of love and war, "Stain of Dishonor," is beautifully told on the screen and a Keystone comedy, with an all-star cast of comedians, "Ambrose's Nasty Temper," is a laugh from start to finish. Keystone comedies fill this popular play house to the doors and every new one is a bigger scream than the one previous.

Tomorrow the great spectacular war drama, "The Revolutionist," a king's romance, will be shown in four amazing acts.

Boston is to have a summer stock company, to be known as the Longman Players, and the visiting stock star system will be followed. Among the stars to be seen are H. B. Warner, Mary Nash, Fritz Scheff and Florence Reed, each in the individual dramatic success of the star.

The attraction at the Palace theater for Thursday, Friday and Saturday is one of the best musical comedy ex-three days of the week. There is a splendid bill of pictures on today, "The Silver Cup," a Lubin drama, featuring Crane Wilbur and Mary Charleson, "When Dumbleigh Saw the Joke," a Vitagraph comedy, featuring Lillian Brown Leighton.

A new farce is to be presented in New York next week called "A Full House." It is by Fred Jackson, a new playwright, and the plot revolves about a lawyer who gets possession of a burglar's set of tools and a stolen necklace. In the company are May Vokes, Elizabeth Nelson, Herbert Corthell and George Parsons.

Alice Joyce and Guy Coombs are on the Bijou screen today in a four-act production of Sheridan's great comedy "The School for Scandal." This play has been acted for more than one hundred years and critics have placed it at the head of all comedies. Hundreds of thousands of people have seen the greatest Broadway stars in the many revivals of this celebrated play during the last few years. The advertising this great comedy has secured, coupled with the fact that Alice Joyce and Guy Coombs head this Kalem production, make it an unusual attraction. A Pathe Daily News and "One Law Breaker," are also shown.

Friday will be another banner day at the Bijou. Francis X. Bushman heads a company that will present "The Return of Richard Neal." It is

Suppose We Pared These Tires

Suppose this All-Weather tread—now double-thick—was pared to the thinness of the usual anti-skid. Would it endure like this one? Or so resist puncture?

Suppose we used—as some do—one less fabric ply. Or made the whole tire lighter. Suppose we omitted our exclusive features:

Our No-Rim-Cut feature—
Our "On-Air" cure—
Our rubber rivets—
Our 126-piano-wire base.

All rivals do omit them. All of them are costly. Our "On-Air" cure alone costs us $450,000 yearly to save needless blowouts. But could Goodyear Fortified Tires retain top place if we did not give those extras?

Cost Added Prices Lowered
Instead of that, we all the time add costly better—

travaganzas on the road, Jack Sutter's "Refuse Me" Company, presenting a laughable absurdity. The company will live up to its reputation as "blue ribbon winners." It introduces numerous and catchy song numbers in a captivating way and many and varied features are offered.

Among those who make laughter are Will Jennings, Kate Carlton, Will J. Deery, May Burns, Jack Sutter, Mable Webb and Billie Ballus, assisted by twelve of the prettiest and most charming singing and dancing beauties ever associated with a similar organization. The company includes eighteen persons in all.

Rejane, the famous French actress, is being enthusiastically received in London in "Alsace," a play which she produced in Paris two years ago.

Owing to the splendid success of "The Whirl of Mirth" musical comedy company, showing at the Odeon the first three days of this week the manager has decided to keep it over for the remainder of the week. The offering for the last three days of this week will be "The Girl of the Photo Shop," a splendid farce comedy in three scenes. There will be a complete change of costumes, musical numbers, scenery and comedy and the bill will be entirely different from the one presented the first a fine love drama, the latest prize mystery play produced in conjunction with the Ladies World.

One of the late Fox motion picture releases, "Sampson," with William Farnum, the man whose face is insured by the Fox concern for $100,000, in the title role, is the big offering today at the Robinson Grand. This is not a Biblical story but a drama by Henri Bernstein, author of "The Thief." It is in five acts, and depicts this modern Sampson pulling down the structure of wealth that he himself has erected, ruining the rake who pursues his wife and crushing the crowd of sycophants and hangers-on whom his benevolence has enriched. Sampson rises triumphant over the wreck of his fortunes and, secure in the love of his wife and with full faith in her, sets his face toward a fresh beginning.
